

Civic Literacy Youth Network (CLYN):
Engagement and skills to discuss, analyze, and counter racism and religious discrimination

Instructions to apply:

1. Answer questions #1-5 below using one of the following formats:
 - a. A 2-3-minute video. Save this online so that it can be accessed by Google Drive, OneDrive, or another Cloud platform you prefer.
 - b. Text response in the link below.
2. Submit your video or text responses, and complete the form at this link:
<https://forms.gle/k25HARqcN94wMcy68>

Whether you choose the video or text format, our focus is to get to know you and hear your thoughts to the questions we raise. We are not concerned with the quality of the video or written response, but are much more interested in the content you share.

Questions:

1. This network aims to gather a group of youth across Canada that holds the following characteristics. Which one do you think is most important for CLYN? Please provide a personal example to explain your choice.
Characteristics:
 - Open-mindedness
 - Curious & willing to learn
 - Leadership experiences, or community involvement, or interest in it
 - Have questions
 - Willingness to listen to others & improve/learn dialogue skills
2. Can you describe a time when you found it difficult to reflect on your own views or consider those of others?
3. Why are you interested in this opportunity?
4. What are you hoping to gain from it?
5. What are you hoping to bring to CLYN?
6. Is there anything else you wanted to add? (optional)

Eligibility criteria: You must meet these criteria in order to apply.

- Between Grade 7 (Sec I) to fourth year university, inclusive
- Are fluent in English or French
- Live in Canada
- Have access to stable internet connections

There is no cost to participate.

Deadline to apply: September 30, 2022.

Applicants will be notified with results this fall and begin meeting in November 2022.

Hosted by:

CCRL The Centre for Civic Religious Literacy
CLRC Le centre de litt ratie religieuse civique

Funded by the Government of Canada
Financ  par le gouvernement du Canada

Canada